

Williamson County
Business Activity
July 2005-June 2006

Date of Activity	Company Name	City of Location	County of Location	Expansion or Relocation	Number of New Jobs	Square footage	Description of Operation	Type of Operation
4/27/2006	Cybera, Inc.	Franklin	Williamson	Expansion		23,619	Cybera, which provides private broadband networking for companies, has outgrown its space in Grassmere and is moving to a full floor in one of Primus' buildings in Cool Springs.	Corporate Office
4/5/2006	CaseLogistix	Franklin	Williamson	Relocation	12	6,000	CaseLogistix, the creator of a document management program used primarily in the legal industry, will move from Jackson, MS to the Nashville region at the end of June 2006.	Headquarters
3/31/2006	M.J. Harris	Brentwood	Williamson	Relocation	0	3,100	M.J. Harris, a Birmingham-based company that focuses on healthcare construction and renovation projects, is moving to offices in Maryland Farms in May 2006	Corporate Office
2/24/2006	Group Xcel	Franklin	Williamson	Expansion	48	12,000	Group Xcel expanded its janitorial division and moved into new office and warehouse space	Service
								Headquarters
12/7/2005	Healthways, Inc.	Franklin	Williamson	Expansion	0	255,000	American Healthways Inc. has outgrown its offices in Nashville and plans to build a larger headquarters in Franklin. American Healthways plans to build a 255,000-square-foot building at the southeast corner of Cool Springs Blvd. and Carothers Pkwy., near the company's existing call center. The 25-year-old company has grown from 500 employees in 2000 to more than 2,500 employees in May 2006.	Headquarters
12/7/2005	Nationwide Mutual Insurance	Brentwood	Williamson	Expansion	25	24,000	Nationwide is merging its three Nashville property and casualty offices into a Brentwood location that has been designated the company's regional headquarters for four states. This moves the headquarters from Memphis to the Nashville area and may result in 20-25 new jobs in the future. The headquarters if for Nationwide's South Central region, which includes Tennessee, Arkansas, Kentucky, and Mississippi.	Headquarters
12/1/2005	Flash Technology	Franklin	Williamson	Expansion	20	-	Manufactures airport tower obstruction & runway lighting systems	Manufacturing
								Headquarters
11/25/2005	HealthTrust Purchasing Group	Brentwood	Williamson	Expansion	0	48,000	HealthTrust has leased 48,000 square feet in the Ramparts Building in Maryland Farms, doubling the group purchasing organization's space. HealthTrust buys $5 million worth of medical supplies annually for about 1,200 acute-care hospitals, ambulatory surgery centers and physician clinics.	Headquarters
11/18/2005	The Worship Network	Franklin	Williamson	Relocation	10	5,000	The Worship Network is known for its unique and uplifting television programming, including its signature inspirational programming called Worship which is designed to encourage worship of God through the use of nature images, music, Scripture and inspirational messages. The Worship Network's executive and creative staff has moved into offices at the Dover Centre at Cool Springs. The network has a staff of 14 in Nashville and Clearwater, FL and expects the number to rise to 30 to 40 by 2010.	Headquarters
11/10/2005	Nissan North America	Franklin	Williamson	Relocation	1,300	600,000	Nissan North America will move its headquarters from Gardena, CA to Middle Tennessee. Nissan will locate in downtown Nashville at the BellSouth building for 2 years and will build a new $70 million headquarters in Franklin to be completed by 2008.	Headquarters
7/13/2005	Community Health Systems	Franklin	Williamson	Expansion	100	175,000	Community Health Systems (CHS) will keep its headquarters in the Williamson County area and move into a new $32 million, 175,000-square-foot building. The company expects to add 100 new employees by the end of 2006. CHS is a leading operator of general acute care hospitals in non-urban communities throughout the country. CHS currently owns, leases or operates 69 hospitals in 21 states.	Health Care
2/1/2005	Momentum Healthware Inc.	Brentwood	Davidson	Relocation	20	5,000	Momentum Healthware Inc., an industry-leading developer of healthcare solutions for the long-term care market in the U.S. and Canada, announced the opening of their new U.S. headquarters in Nashville, Tennessee. Momentum Healthware is the only software company located in Tennessee that focuses exclusively on the growing U.S. long-term care market.	Headquarters
TOTAL					1,535	1,156,719		